Over 300 people attended the 15th annual Ronald McDonald House® of Miami's annual luncheon to honor the "Twelve Good Men" of 2008 on Thursday, April 10th, at Parrot Jungle Island. The purpose of the event is to honor leading men with a history of outstanding community involvement, civic service, and involvement in one or more of South Florida's charity organizations. This year's event raised more than $75,000 to benefit children and families staying at the House That Love Built®.

"We are very pleased with the success of this year's event," commented Soraya-Rivera Moya, Executive Director of the Ronald McDonald House. "We are privileged to pay tribute to those individuals who have worked hard for the betterment our community and who share our passion for helping those who are less fortunate."
